

THE QUEEN'S GALLERY, PALACE OF HOLYROODHOUSE & ST CECILIA'S MUSIC HALL

Thursday 17 October 2019

The latest Exhibition "Russia, Royalty and the Romanovs" explores the relationships between Britain and Russia and their Royal Families from Peter the Great's visit to London in 1698 through to Nicholas II. Portraits, sculptures, photographs, archive documents and masterpieces by Faberge contrive to make this a fascinating Exhibition.

At St Cecilia's Hall, we will see one of the finest collections of Harpsichords in the UK. The visit will end with a Recital.
