HAWTHORNDEN LECTURE THEATRE, SCOTTISH NATIONAL GALLERY, EDINBURGH.

A LECTURE BY ANDREW GRAHAM-DIXON "REFLECTIONS ON REMBRANDT"
Followed By
7PM-8.30PM SCOTTISH NATIONAL GALLERY
PRIVATE VIEW OF THE EXHIBITION

REMBRANDT, BRITAIN'S DISCOVERY OF THE MASTER

*Landscape with the Rest on the Flight into Egypt, 1647, by Rembrandt
(Rembrandt van Rijn). National Gallery of Ireland, Dublin*

This exclusive new exhibition will only be shown in Edinburgh. It tells the story of the British discovery of Rembrandt by collectors and artists. We are delighted that, following the success of the Beyond Caravaggio Event last year Andrew Graham Dixon has agreed to return and give his lecture "Reflections on Rembrandt."

This will be followed by a Private View of the superb exhibition, and we are most grateful to The National Galleries of Scotland for opening the Gallery specially for us.
The Golden Age of Dutch Art's greatest painter for our Golden Jubilee!

Tickets are priced at £25. More information on this event and the refund policy can be found on the Arts Society Scotland & NI Area website: www.scotland-ni-nadfas.org.uk.

Postal applications: Rembrandt Lecture, 10 Ormidale Terrace, Edinburgh EH12 6EQ.
